

A LITIGATOR'S
GUIDE TO NEVADA
DISCOVERY LAW

JAY YOUNG

TABLE OF CONTENTS

OVERVIEW	1
CHAPTER 1	3
1.THE SCOPE OF PERMITTED DISCOVERY
1.1.The Court has Inherent Authority to Govern the Discovery Process	3
1.2.The Court May Look to Federal Decisions.....	3
1.3.Commencement of Discovery.....	4
1.4.NRCP 26(b)(1)—Scope of Permissible Discovery	4
1.5.The Proportionality Standard	5
1.6.Duty to Narrowly Tailor Discovery and Work Cooperatively.....	6
1.7.Proportionality and Motion Practice	7
1.9.Proportionality and Personnel Files.....	9
1.10.NRCP 26(g) Certification.....	10
1.11.NRCP 26(g) Duty of Inquiry	11
1.11.1.NRCP 26(g) Sanctions	11
CHAPTER 2	15
2.MANDATORY PRETRIAL DISCLOSURES
2.1.NRCP 16. All Civil Actions.....	15
2.1.1.Contents of the Case Management Order or Rule 16 Order	15
2.1.2.Rule 16 Sanctions	15
2.2.Mandatory Rule 16.1 Disclosures (Non-Domestic Civil Actions)	16
2.2.1.Required Initial Disclosures Under NRCP 16.1 (Non-Domestic Civil Actions).....	16
2.2.2.Objections to Mandatory Disclosures.....	17
2.2.3.Due Date for Mandatory NRCP 16.1 Disclosures	18
2.3.The Early Case Conference.....	18
2.3.1.Timing of the Early Case Conference	18
2.3.2.Early Case Conference Exchange of Disclosures.....	19
2.3.3.The Tailored Discovery Plan.....	19
2.3.4.Case Conference Report	20
2.4.Disclosure of Insurance Policies	20
2.5.Disclosure of Insurance Claims File.....	21
2.5.1.Privileged Portions of Claims File are Protected	21
2.5.2.Items in Claims File Requiring Disclosure	23
2.5.3.Items Properly Redacted or Withheld From Claims File Disclosure.....	24
2.6.Disclosure of Impeachment Evidence.....	25
2.7.Disclosure of Damages Calculations.....	25
2.7.1.Computation of Special Damages	26
2.7.2.Future Medical Expenses in NRCP 16.1 Damages Computations.....	26
2.7.3.Pain and Suffering in NRCP 16.1 Damages Computations.....	26
2.8.Failure to Make Rule 16.1 Disclosures	27
2.9.Failure to Disclose Damages Calculations.....	27
2.10.Disclosure of Contemporaneous—Versus Sub Rosa —Surveillance	28
2.10.2.Disclosure of Sub Rosa Video	29
2.10.3.Disclosure of Contemporaneously Recorded Video.....	29
2.11.The Impact of Failure to Disclose a Witness.....	30
2.12.Supplementing Mandatory Disclosures	30
2.12.1.Obligation to Supplement, Generally	30
2.12.2.Supplementing Expert Witness Disclosures	30
2.12.3.Motion for Sanctions for Failure to Provide Initial or Supplemental Disclosures.....	31

2.13.Mandatory Rule 16.2 Disclosures (Actions for Divorce, Annulment, Separate Maintenance, Dissolution of Domestic Partnerships).....	32
2.13.1.Disclosure of Financial Disclosure Form.....	32
2.13.2.Initial Disclosure Requirement.....	32
2.13.3.Expert Witness Disclosure	33
2.13.4.Rule 16.2 Sanctions.....	33
2.13.4.1.Sanction for Failure to Execute Authorization	33
2.13.4.2.Sanction for Failure to Serve Financial Disclosure Form	34
2.13.4.3.Sanction for Failure to Timely Serve Disclosures	34
2.13.4.4.Sanction for Failure to Supplement Disclosures.....	34
2.14.Mandatory Rule 16.205 Disclosures —Actions for Paternity or Custody Between Unmarried Persons.....	34
2.14.1.Disclosure of Financial Disclosure Form.....	34
2.14.2.Initial Disclosure Requirement.....	35
2.14.3.Expert Witness Disclosure	35
2.14.4.NRCP 16.205 Sanctions.....	35
2.14.4.1.Sanction for Failure to Execute Authorization	35
2.14.4.2.Sanction for Failure to Serve FDF.....	36
2.14.4.3.Sanction for Failure to Timely Serve Disclosures	36
CHAPTER 3	37
3.DEPOSITION TO PERPETUATE TESTIMONY—NRCP 27
3.1.Pre-suit Discovery—Deposition to Perpetuate Testimony	37
3.2.Elements of Petition to Perpetuate Testimony.....	37
3.3.Other Methods of Pre-suit Discovery Under NRCP 27.....	38
CHAPTER 4	39
4.DEPOSITION BY ORAL EXAMINATION—NRCP 30
4.1.When a Deposition is Permitted	39
4.2.Any Person may be Deposed.....	39
4.3.How to Notice the Taking of a Deposition	39
4.4.Limitation on the Number of Depositions	40
4.5.Contact With Prospective Witnesses.....	41
4.6.Number of Rule 30 (b)(6) Designees	41
4.7.Taking a Rule 30(b)(6) Designee’s Deposition as a Fact Witness	42
4.8.Subpoena of Officer, Director, or Managing Agent of a Party for a Deposition.....	42
4.9.Retaking a Person’s Deposition.....	43
4.10.Time and Location of Deposition	44
4.10.1.Location of a Plaintiff’s Deposition	44
4.10.2.Location of a Defendant’s Deposition	44
4.10.3.Location of a Corporation’s Deposition.....	45
4.10.4.Location of a Non-party Witness’ Deposition.....	45
4.10.5.The Okada Factors are Used for Determining Where a Deposition Should be Taken	45
4.11.Duration of Deposition	46
4.12.Requesting Disclosure of Documents From a Deponent.....	47
4.12.1.Requesting a Non-Party Bring Documents to a Deposition	47
4.12.2.Requesting a Party Bring Documents to a Deposition	47
4.12.3.Requesting Documents From a Party During a Deposition.....	47
4.13.Who may Attend a Deposition	48
4.13.1.Protective Order Regarding who may Attend a Deposition	49
4.14.Examination of Witness at Deposition.....	50
4.14.1.Counsel’s Behavior at Deposition	50
4.14.2.Witness Behavior at Deposition	51
4.14.3.Sanctions for Inappropriate Deposition Conduct	52
4.15.Disclosure of Document Used to Refresh Recollection at Deposition	53
4.15.1.FRE 612 Versus NRS 50.125.....	53
4.15.2.Privilege and Disclosure of Documents Used to Refresh Recollection.....	54

4.16. Use of Previously Undisclosed Document	55
4.16.1. A Review of a Party's Disclosure Obligations	55
4.16.2. Sanctions for Waiting Until a Deposition to Disclose a Document	56
4.17. Cross-Examination at Deposition	57
4.17.1. Cross Notice Not Required	57
4.17.2. Permissible Scope of Cross Examination	58
4.18. Defending a Deposition	58
4.18.1. Objecting to the Court Reporter's Qualifications	58
4.18.2. Objections Preserved for Trial	58
4.18.3. Objecting to the Form of the Question	59
4.18.4. Coaching and Other Obstructionist Deposition Behavior	61
4.18.5. Instructing a Witness not to Answer a Deposition Question	63
4.19. Protective Order Considerations	64
4.20. Conferring With a Witness During a Deposition; the Coyote Springs Problem	64
4.21. Motion for Sanctions for a Party's Failure to Attend their own Deposition	66
4.22. The Rule 30(b)(1) Entity Deposition	67
4.12. The Rule 30(b)	69
4.22.1. Taking the Deposition of an Entity	69
4.22.2. Identifying the Topic(s) and the Designee(s)	69
4.22.3. The Myth of the "PMK" Deposition	71
4.22.4. The Entity's Obligation to Educate and Prepare a Witness	71
4.22.5. Objecting to the Rule 30(b)(6) Notice	73
4.23. Questions Beyond the Scope of the NRCP 30(b)(6) Deposition Notice	74
4.24. Deposition of a Party's Counsel	74
4.25. Procedure for Taking an Out-Of-State Deposition	74
4.26. Deposing High-Ranking Officials and Executives: the Apex Deposition Doctrine	75
4.27. Expert Witness Deposition Fees	78
4.27.1. Responsibility to Pay the Expert Witness' Fee	78
4.27.2. Motion to Set Reasonable Expert Witness Deposition Fee	79
CHAPTER 5	81
5. WRITTEN DISCOVERY GENERALLY
5.1. Relevant Matters are Discoverable	81
5.2. Proportionality under Rule 26(b)(1) and the Holding in Venetian v. Eighth Jud. Dist. Ct.	82
CHAPTER 6	85
6. INTERROGATORIES TO PARTIES—NRCP 33
6.1. Interrogatories in General	85
6.2. Scope of Discovery Permitted by Interrogatory	85
6.3. Timing of Interrogatories; Answers	86
6.4. Interrogatories Concerning Requests for Admission	87
6.5. Interrogatories Requiring Review and Compilation of Data	87
6.6. Interrogatories with Discrete Subparts	88
6.6.1. The Kendall v. GES Exposition Services, Inc. Rule and its Alternatives	88
6.6.1.1. The Majority Test	88
6.6.1.2. The "Pragmatic" Test	89
6.6.1.3. The "Strict Construction" Test	89
6.7. Contention Interrogatories	89
6.8. Interrogatories Seeking Legal Conclusions	91
6.9. Interrogatories Seeking Factual Basis of Complaint (Each and Every Fact)	91
6.10. Answering Interrogatories	93
6.10.1. Who Must Answer Interrogatories	93
6.10.2. Content of Interrogatory Answers	94
6.10.3. Answering Interrogatories "Subject To" Objections	95
6.10.4. Reasonable Inquiry Requirement When Answering Interrogatories	95
6.10.5. Untimely Answers to Interrogatories Waive Objections	97

6.10.6. Proper Reference to Prior Disclosures in Interrogatory Answers	97
6.10.7. Non-party's Contact Information	99
6.11. Identification of Class Members	100
6.12. Motion for Sanctions for Failure to Serve Answers to Interrogatories	100
6.12.1. The Court May Order Sanctions	100
6.12.2. Types of Sanctions Under NRCP 37(d)(3)	100
CHAPTER 7	103
7. PRODUCING DOCUMENTS, ESI, INSPECTIONS, TANGIBLE THINGS, ETC.—NRCP 34
7.1. Rule 34 Requests for Documents and Inspections Generally	103
7.2. Responses and Objections to Request for Documents or Inspection	104
7.3. Expenses of Copying Documents/Electronically Stored Information	105
7.4. A Party May be Required to Disclose Documents from a Non-party Entity	105
7.5. Objections to Requests for Production of Documents	106
7.6. What Constitutes Possession, Custody, or Control	108
7.7. Responding that Documents do not Exist (After Reasonable Inquiry)	108
7.8. Proper Reference to Prior Disclosures	109
7.9. Cell Phone Data	111
7.10. Prior Incidents and Discovery of Permanent Condition	112
7.11. Prior Incidents and Discovery of a Temporary or Transient Condition	112
7.12. Electronically Stored Information (“ESI”) Generally	113
7.13. Rule 16.1 Conference Discussions Regarding ESI	115
7.14. NRCP 26 Limitations on ESI Production	117
7.15. ESI and Spoliation/Retention Responsibilities	117
7.16. Failure to Preserve Electronically Stored Information	118
7.17. Disclosure of ESI	119
7.18. A Non-Party may be Commanded to Produce ESI by Subpoena	119
7.19. Discoverable ESI Metadata	120
7.19.1. Types of Metadata	120
7.19.1.1. Application Metadata	120
7.19.1.2. System Metadata (File System Metadata)	121
7.19.1.3. Embedded Metadata	121
7.19.2. Authenticating Metadata	121
7.19.3. Discoverable Metadata	123
7.20. Sanctions for Failure to Respond to NRCP 34 Request	126
7.20.1. The Court may Order Sanctions	126
7.20.2. Types of Sanctions Available	126
CHAPTER 8	129
8. OBJECTIONS TO WRITTEN DISCOVERY
8.1. Objections to Written Discovery	129
8.2. General Objections to Written Discover	130
8.3. Objection that Written Discovery is Argumentative	132
8.4. Objection that Written Discovery is Vague and/or Ambiguous	133
8.5. Objection to “Blockbuster” Discovery Requests— Each and Every Fact	136
8.6. Boilerplate Objections	137
8.7. Objection to Unduly Burdensome Discovery Requests	141
8.8. Objection that Discovery Calls for Legal Conclusion	142
8.9. Objection that Discovery Seeks Confidential Information	143
8.10. Co-Opting Other Discovery (Including “Cloned” or “Piggyback” Discovery)	144
8.11. Objection to Cumulative or Duplicative Discovery	148
8.12. Objection where Discovery is Equally Available to the Requesting Party	148
8.13. Objection to Discovery of Party's Financial Condition	149
8.14. Objection to Discovery of Party's Tax Returns	150
8.15. Discovery Responses Claiming no Documents Found	152
8.15.1. Affirmative Duty to Search	152

8.15.2. Testimony Regarding Search for Responsive Documents.....	153
8.16. Objection Regarding Overbroad Discovery Requests.....	154
8.17. Discovery Response Invoking Fifth Amendment Privilege against Self-Incrimination.....	157
8.18. Objection that the Requested Discovery is Irrelevant.....	159
8.19. Objection that the Request seeks Trade Secret Information.....	161
8.19.1. Definitions Relative to Trade Secret Disputes.....	161
8.19.2. Reasonable Efforts to Maintain Secrecy.....	162
8.19.3. Motion to Compel or Protect Trade Secret Information.....	162
8.20. Untimely Objections to Written Discovery are Waived.....	164
8.21. Objection that the Request Lacks Temporal Limitation.....	166
CHAPTER 9.....	167
9. PHYSICAL AND MENTAL EXAMINATIONS—NRCP 35
9.1. Rule 35 Exam Generally.....	167
9.2. Motion for Rule 35 Exam: Necessary Elements.....	167
9.2.1. Proving a Party's Condition is in Controversy.....	168
9.2.2. Proving Good Cause.....	169
9.2.3. The Court's Discretion to Order a Rule 35 Exam.....	170
9.3. Timing of a Rule 35 Exam.....	170
9.4. Rule 35 Observer.....	171
9.4.1. A Party's Right to Demand an Observer Under Rule 35.....	171
9.4.2. Restrictions on Who may Observe the Rule 35 Exam.....	171
9.4.2.1. A Rule 35 Observer May not be Party's Attorney or Employed by Party or Party's Attorney.....	171
9.4.2.2. Court Interpretation of Rule 35.....	172
9.4.3. Restrictions Regarding when an Observer is Allowed under Rule 35.....	173
9.5. Recording the Rule 35 Exam.....	173
9.6. Number of Rule 35 Examinations Permitted.....	174
9.7. Motion for Sanctions for Failure to Produce a Party for a Rule 35 Examination.....	175
9.8. NRS 52.380 and the Lyft Decision.....	176
9.9. Legislative Response to Lyft —AB244.....	177
CHAPTER 10.....	179
10. REQUESTS FOR ADMISSION—NRCP 36
10.1. Requests for Admission Generally.....	179
10.2. Number of Requests for Admission Permitted.....	179
10.3. Responding and Objecting to Requests for Admission.....	180
10.4. Interrogatories Regarding Requests for Admission.....	181
10.5. Effect of Admission.....	182
10.6. Withdrawal of Admission.....	182
10.7. Improper Requests for Admission.....	184
10.8. Motion to Deem Requests Admitted.....	185
10.9. Motion for Sanctions for Failure to Admit.....	186
CHAPTER 11.....	187
11. EXPERT WITNESSES
11.1. Expert Witnesses Generally.....	187
11.2. Disclosure of Expert Testimony—NRCP 16.1(a)(2).....	187
11.3. Deadline to Disclose Expert Opinion.....	188
11.4. Witnesses who must Provide a Written Report.....	188
11.5. De-Designation of a Testifying Expert.....	190
11.6. Opinions about Secondary Gain.....	190
11.7. Ex Parte Communications with an Opposing Party's Expert Witness.....	190
11.8. Expert Witness Testimony Regarding Opinions Not Contained in the Expert's Report.....	190
11.9. Rebuttal Expert Reports.....	191
11.9.1. The Purpose of Rebuttal Expert Opinions.....	191
11.9.2. Unforeseen v. Expected and Anticipated Opinions.....	191
11.10. Late Designation of Expert Witness.....	194

11.11.Substantially Justified or Harmless Exception to Late Expert Designation.....	195
11.12.Expert Witnesses who are Not Required to Provide a Written Report	196
11.13.Treating Physician as Expert Witness	197
11.13.1.When a Treating Physician must Disclose a Written Report	197
11.13.2.Limitation Regarding Opinions Formed During Treatment	197
11.13.3.Standard of Care Testimony by Treating Physician.....	200
11.14.Testimony about “Writing Down” Medical Liens	202
11.15.Reasonable Expert Witness Fee for Deposition Testimony	203
11.15.1.Motion to Set Reasonable Expert Fee	204
11.16.Discoverability of Expert Witness Bias	205
CHAPTER 12.....	207
12.DISCOVERY MOTION PRACTICE
12.1.Requirement to Hold Pre-filing Dispute Resolution Conference—the “Meet and Confer”	207
12.1.1.Types of Motions Requiring a Dispute Resolution Conference	207
12.1.2.The Threshold Inquiry Regarding the Dispute Resolution Conference	209
12.2.Requirements of the Dispute Resolution Conference Declaration.....	209
12.3.Refusal to Hold a Dispute Resolution Conference.....	212
12.3.1.Both Parties are Obligated to Participate in the Dispute Resolution Conference in Good Faith	212
12.3.2.Mandatory Sanction for Filing Motion Before Holding Dispute Resolution Conference	213
12.4.NRCP 37 Provisions Permitting a Motion to Compel Discovery Responses	213
12.4.1.Pre-filing Dispute Resolution Conference.....	213
12.4.2.Motion to Compel Further Deposition Testimony	213
12.4.3.Motion to Compel Answer to Interrogatory	214
12.4.4.Motion to Compel Production of Documents.....	214
12.4.5.Motion to Compel Inspection.....	215
12.5.The Initial Burden—Demonstrating Relevance and Proportionality	215
12.6.Burden Shifting: the Responding Party Bears the Burden of Demonstrating that Requested Discovery Should be Prohibited.....	216
12.7.Fee Awards on Motions to Compel.....	218
12.7.1.Mandatory Award of Fees to Prevailing Party on a Motion to Compel	218
12.7.2.If a Motion to Compel is Denied, the Movant Must Pay Fees	219
12.7.3.If the Motion is Granted in Part and Denied in Part.....	219
12.7.4.Exception to the Mandatory Fee Award Requirement	219
12.8.Motion to Compel Mandatory Disclosures	220
12.8.1Automatic Disclosures Required.....	220
12.8.2.Inquiry Required for Initial Disclosures.....	221
12.8.3.Presumptive Due Date for Initial Disclosures	221
12.8.4.Duty to Supplement Disclosures	221
12.8.5.Moving to Compel	222
12.9.Timeliness of Motion to Compel Discovery.....	222
12.9.1.Motion Filed Before Discovery Cutoff.....	222
12.9.2.Motion Filed After Dispositive Motion Deadline.....	223
12.9.3.Determining Prejudice Due to Timing of Motion	223
12.10.NRCP 26(b)(2)(C)— Protective Order Limiting Discovery	224
12.11.Protective Orders.....	225
12.11.1.NRCP 26(c) Required Elements for the Issuance of a Protective Order.....	226
12.11.1.1.Dispute Resolution Conference	226
12.11.1.2.Threshold Burden of Proof—Relevance and Proportionality.....	226
12.11.1.3.Good Cause Standard Required for the Issuance of Protective Order.....	228
12.11.1.4.Good Cause Must be Demonstrated by Competent Evidence	230
12.11.1.5.The Venetian Good Cause Test.....	232
12.11.2.All Evidence is Presumptively Subject to Public Disclosure	233
12.12.Protection from Taking Deposition	234
12.13.Protective Order Against Disclosure of Trial Preparation Materials.....	234

12.14. Party Motion for Protective Order Regarding a Non-party Subpoena	234
12.15. Award of Fees on Motion to Compel	234
12.16. Motion for Spoliation Sanctions	235
12.16.1. Spoliation Defined	235
12.16.2. Finding of Spoliation	236
12.16.3. Pre-litigation Spoliation	237
12.16.4 Spoliation Remedy	237
CHAPTER 13	241
13. DISCOVERY SANCTIONS
13.1. Discovery Sanctions Permitted by the NRCP Generally	241
13.2. Motion for an Award of Fees and Costs	243
13.3. Standard for Granting an Award of Attorney Fees	244
13.3.1. The Brunzell Factors	244
13.3.2. Determining Reasonableness	248
13.4. The Standard for Granting an Award of Costs	250
13.5. Sanctions for Failure to Comply with a Court Order	252
13.5.1. Sanctions for Failure to Disclose or Supplement	253
13.5.2. Sanctions for Failure to Admit	253
13.5.3. Sanctions for Failure to Attend own Deposition	254
13.5.4. Sanctions for Failure to Serve Answers to Interrogatories	254
13.5.5. Sanctions for Failure to Respond to a Rule 34 Request	254
13.6. Case Ending Sanctions	255
CHAPTER 14	257
14. NON-PARTY DISCOVERY BY SUBPOENA—NRCP 45
14.1. Subpoena to Individual Witness for Deposition Testimony	257
14.2. Subpoena to Rule 30(b)(6) Designee	258
14.3. Subpoena Duces Tecum	258
14.3.1. Subpoena Duces Tecum Defined	258
14.3.2. The Scope of Discovery Permitted by Subpoena Duces Tecum	258
14.3.3. The 7-Day Notice of Intention to Serve Subpoena Duces Tecum	261
14.3.3.1. The Automatic Stay	262
14.3.3.2. Serving the Subpoena Duces Tecum	263
14.4. Party Objections to Notice of Intention to Serve Subpoena Duces Tecum	263
14.5. Boilerplate Objections are Both Inappropriate and Sanctionable	266
14.6. A Subpoena is Subject to Rules 26(c), 26(g), and 37(a)(5)	268
14.7. Non-Party Obligations when Served with a Subpoena	269
14.7.1. Non-party Objections to a Subpoena	269
14.7.2. Effect of Non-Party Objections to a Subpoena	270
14.7.3. Unduly Burdensome Subpoena to a Non-Party	273
14.7.3.1. If Documents are in the possession of a Party	273
14.7.3.2. If Subpoena Places Undue Financial Burden on Non-Party	274
14.7.3.3. If Subpoena Seeks Private, Confidential Information	275
14.8. Motion to Quash or Modify Subpoena	276
14.8.1. Mandatory Motion to Quash	276
14.8.2. Permissive Motion to Quash	277
14.8.3. Burden of Proof on Motion to Quash	277
14.8.4. Fee Shifting Required for Burdensome Subpoena	278
CHAPTER 15	279
15. PRIVILEGE ISSUES
15.1. Privileged Communications Generally	279
15.2. The Attorney-Client Privilege	280
15.2.1. Attorney-Client Privilege Defined	280
15.2.2. Who may Claim the Privilege	281
15.2.3. Facts are not Privileged	281

15.3. Withholding Evidence Based on Privilege	281
15.4. Clawback	283
15.5. The Common Interest Doctrine	284
15.6. Exceptions to the Privilege	284
15.7. Waiver of Privilege	285
15.7.1. Waiver Generally	285
15.7.2. Crime-Fraud Waiver	287
15.7.3. At-Issue Waiver	287
15.7.4. Waiver by Inadvertent Disclosure	289
15.8. Attorney Work Product	290
15.8.1. Work Product Defined	290
15.8.2. The Burden of Proof Regarding Work Product Protection	291
15.8.3. Disclosure of Work Product upon Showing Substantial Need	293
15.9. Waiver of Work Product	293
15.9.1. Common Interest Doctrine Waiver	293
15.10. Privilege based on Business Advice of In-House Counsel	294
15.11. Spousal Privilege	295
15.12. Privilege Log	296
15.12.1. Requirement to Provide a Privilege Log When Withholding Evidence	296
15.12.2. Elements of a Proper Privilege Log	296
15.12.3. Failure to Provide a Privilege Log	299
15.13. Fifth Amendment Privilege Against Self-incrimination	300
CHAPTER 16	303
16. DISCOVERY RELATING TO PUNITIVE DAMAGES
16.1. Punitive Damages Discovery Permitted	303
CHAPTER 17	305
17. MISCELLANEOUS DISCOVERY ISSUES
17.1. Discovery when Defendant Admits Vicarious Liability	305
17.2. Interpretation of the Rules of Civil Procedure	306
17.3. Sealing of Pleadings	307
17.4. Discovery of Social Media	307
CHAPTER 18	313
18. DISCOVERY COMMISSIONER DUTIES AND POWERS
18.1. A Discovery Commissioner is a Judge	313
18.2. Discovery Commissioner's Authority Under NRCP 16.3	313
18.3. All Discovery Disputes Start with the Discovery Commissioner	314
18.4. Report and Recommendation; Objection	314
18.4.1. Report and Recommendation	314
18.4.2. Objections to Report and Recommendation	315
18.5. Discovery Commissioner may Issue a Stay	316
18.6. Miscellaneous Powers of the Discovery Commissioner	317
18.7. Limitations on the Powers of the Discovery Commissioner	317
18.8. The District Court may Refer Any Matter to the Discovery Commissioner	317
TABLE OF AUTHORITIES	319